About The Oxford Inn

The Oxford Inn is a historic bed and breakfast that has seven rooms and has provided a respite for Oxford's loving guests for over ten years, although the "Oxford Inn" itself has been in operation for more than twenty years. We are currently being featured by the travel channel as one of thirty romantic inns across the country. We were listed as one of the most accommodating inns on the Eastern Shore by the Philadelphia Inquirer and are featured in their travel section in syndication throughout the country. The Oxford Inn is also recommended by Frommer's, Fodor's, and Brenda Chapin's "Recommended Country Inns" to name a few. Although we are proud of these accolades, our most cherished compliments come from the guests who consider the Oxford Inn on the Maryland's Eastern Shore their home away from home and have truly become our friends.
