Review Highlights - A circa-1880 Oxford inn is the romantic setting for this high-end "Eastern shore favorite" offering "superbly prepared" New American selections in a best-of-both-worlds setting: "cozy in winter, airy in summer"; a mix of "locals" and "visitors" appreciates the "first-rate" service and complimentary "Popemobile" (i.e. a British cab) that shuttles diners from the dock or other locales within town.
